Adoption Agreement

The DeZavala-Shavano Veterinary Clinic (“Clinic”) makes every effort to adopt out healthy animals. However, incubation periods for certain conditions make it impossible to guarantee an illness will not occur. The Clinic will not be held responsible for any expenses or circumstances arising from the occurrence of any unforeseen conditions or illnesses.

On occasion a pet may be adopted with ongoing condition(s) such as diabetes, hyper/hypo-thyroidism, seizures, etc. that are typically manageable but require continued care. In such case, the condition(s) will be noted below, and it will be the Adopting Owner’s responsibility to continue the pet’s care at his/her own expense.

The adoption fee paid includes the following services but may vary based on the pet’s age and any known history of the pet. Please note the pet will receive only those services below which the pet needs at the time the pet is released to the Adopting Owner except as noted (*). Adoption packages do not include services for illness, grooming, boarding, elective or corrective surgery, subsequent food/ preventatives/vaccinations (including puppy/kitten boosters) or similar services after the pet is released to the Adopting Owner.

Dogs

- Intestinal parasite screen
- Heartworm/E. Canis/Lymes screen (if of age)
- DH(L)PP/CV
- Rabies vaccine*
- Spay or neuter* (within 6 months of adoption)
- Microchip (initial registration fee included)

Cats

- Intestinal parasite screen
- FeLV/FIV test
- FVRCP/(FeLV)/Calici
- Rabies vaccine*
- Spay or neuter* (within 6 months of adoption)
- Microchip (initial registration fee included)

* If adopting a puppy or kitten, these services will be provided once the pet is of appropriate age.

A pet adopted from the Clinic may be returned within one year from the date of adoption if boarding space is available; however, a Release Pet Ownership fee will be assessed. No refund will be given after 30 days from the date of adoption. Any refund will be for the original adoption cost and will not include any subsequent services and/or products paid on behalf of the adopted pet.
